FROM THE DESK OF YOUR SECRETARY

Dear Esteemed Members of the Association,

Greetings from all of us at the Executive Committee!!

We wish every member and their families peace, good health and happiness in the year just born. We wish you success in all your endeavors and for all of us at the IACTS.

The 72nd Annual Conference IACTS CON 2026 is just around the corner and raring to go. We hope all of you would participate and wish you a grand time together.

The Annual General Body Meeting would be on 27th February at 5:00 PM. I hope all of you have updated your profiles on the IACTS website as requested in the previous newsletter.

Kindly download your ID cards. These are downloadable as PDF files and are password protected. The password is the eight digit membership number without the prefix. Kindly download, open and take a screenshot and keep it handy when coming to attend the Annual General Body Meeting. This identity card is necessary for entry to the General Body Meeting.

I have given the details of the candidates contesting for the Junior Vice President post and two Executive Member posts and also the contesting teams for the IACTS CON 2029 Venue.

Again, all of us at the IACTS Executive Committee join together with all our families in wishing you all a wonderful 2026.

We look forward to seeing you in Mumbai at the IACTS CON.

Long live IACTS!

Warmly yours,

Dr Jacob Jamesraj

Secretary, Indian Association of Cardiovascular-Thoracic Surgeons

Candidates contesting for the post of Junior Vice President are

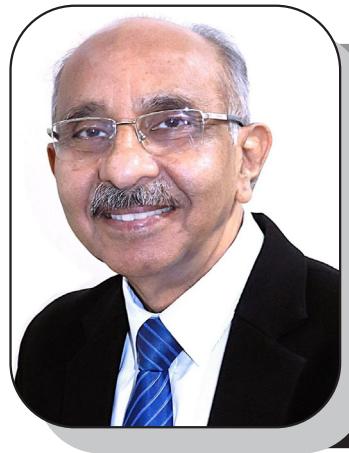

At this defining moment for IACTS, the choices we make will shape our unity, training, and future relevance. Having weathered several storms and risen against the odds, mentoring many young surgeons along the way, resilience, deliverables and inclusiveness define my leadership. I am committed to moving into action mode on critical issues: structured curriculum, fair handling of cardiac-thoracic-vascular splits, interventional training and permissions, access to new technology, outreach beyond major centers, and proper heart-team roles across centers. With your support, I seek to serve as Junior Vice President to steer these debates towards equitable, evidence-based solutions

Dr Abha Chandra
IMSR Integral University, Lucknow

Dear IACTS colleagues, Over the last three years as EC member, I have championed initiatives for academic excellence, transparency, and member welfare—strengthening IACTS as a unified, supportive community. My commitment is rooted in active leadership, innovation in education, and improving workplace well-being. As President, I pledge to further enhance collaboration, mentorship, and holistic growth for our association, ensuring every member's personal and professional well-being remains our top priority.

Dr Prasanna Simha M
Sri Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research, Bangalore

Dear Friends,
I wish to offer my services for the post of 'Junior Vice President'.
Despite consummate ease with words, having been Editor of IJTC; unfortunately, I'm at a loss to compose a reach-out communication to as discerning an electorate as you. Neither have I any loud promises to make, nor do I have any false illusions of my capabilities, beyond those of an ordinary mortal. All I assure you is my very best and unstinted commitment to any, and every, initiative that you want me to lead.

Hope I excite you enough as your prospective 'President'.

Warmly,
OP Yadava

Candidates contesting for the posts of Executive Member (two posts) are

I would like to work towards the increase in public insurance packages for cardiothoracic surgeries including MICS , Transplants and other Complex Paediatric procedures to the present time sustainable cost,which will sustain the cardiothoracic surgery program in most of the hospitals across the country I would like to work on encouraging residency program to include students exchange training program with the renowned international cardiothoracic centers to boost exchange of knowledge, technology , resource and talent. I would like to work on establishing CTSNET type of website called IACTSNET to help and encourage database of cardiothoracic surgeons,spreading knowledge, job opportunities and overall development of IACTS to the next level.

Dr Ashwini Kumar Pasarad
SJICR, Bangalore

Respected seniors, juniors and my dear friends this year need your blessings and support for the post of executive member. Presently am the secretary of VACTS (Vishakha association of cardiothoracic surgeons) . I have successfully conducted 1st APCTCON in 2017 which was a great success. I have also conducted our national conference CTCON-2018 in Vishakapatnam which was a grand success. During my M.Ch days i was MARD president and fought for the pathetic conditions of residents in Mumbai. My aim is to work for the betterment of organization ,fight for rights of all doctor community and for glory and pride of Cardiac Surgery.

Dr Jaideep Kumar Trivedi
Apollo Hospitals, Vishakapatnam

I am pleased to offer myself as a candidate for Executive Member of the Indian Association of Cardiothoracic Surgery. The Association has been central to advancing cardiothoracic care, education, research, and collaboration in India, and it would be an honour to contribute to this mission. As a practicing cardiothoracic surgeon committed to ethical, patient centred, evidence based care, I believe we must continue to support high quality training, indigenous research, clinical safety, collaboration, and mentorship. If elected, I will work with dedication, transparency, and inclusiveness to strengthen opportunities for all members. I sincerely request your support and valuable vote.

SJICRS Bangalore

Dear Esteemed Members, It is with humility & enthusiasm that I seek your support for the position of Executive Member of IACTS. With over fifteen years of experience in cardiac surgery, academics, and leadership, I currently serve as a Cardiovascular, thoracic, and transplant surgeon at Jaslok Hospital and Research Centre, Mumbai. Trained at Grant Medical College, Mumbai, and the Royal Melbourne Hospital, Australia, and honoured with the Dr. P. K. Sen and Dr. Sadasivan Gold Medals, I remain committed to excellence. I aim to strengthen education, innovation, and global collaboration in IACTS. Together, let us take IACTS forward.

Dr Upendra Bhalerao
Jaslok Hospital and Research Centre, Mumbai

Dear Esteemed Colleagues, With deep commitment to advancing our specialty, I humbly seek your support for the post of IACTS Executive Committee member. My vision is to strengthen academic excellence, enhance postgraduate training, and inspire the next generation to choose cardiothoracic surgery as a career of passion and purpose. I will work tirelessly to establish national platforms for research, teaching, and mentorship, ensuring every trainee has access to world-class learning opportunities. Together, we can shape the future of our specialty I request your valuable vote to build a stronger academic future for us all.
